Milan, May 5. N. S.

SOME Days ago there arriv'd in this City four Commiſſaries from the Court of Vienna, to review the Accounts of the Magiſtrates of this Place: They report here, that an Inſpector-General will be eſtabliſhed over all the Revenues of the Emperor in the Milaneſe, and that the Publick Offices, which have had the Cognizance of thoſe Affairs, will be ſuppreſt for the future. The Equipages of the General Count Thaun, are arrived at this Place, and the Imperial Troops deſigned for Catalonia, are in full March towards Final or Vado, where they are to embark; but the Forces which were employ'd in the reduction of Porto Ercole, are gone forwards in their way to Piedmont.

Vienna, May 25. N. S. The Ceremony of the Coronation of the Emperor was perform'd on Sunday laſt, being the Feaſt of the Holy Trinity, in the Cathedral Church of Presburg, by the Cardinal of Saxe Zeits, Primate of Hungary, aſſiſted by divers other Prelates, with great Magnificence, and all the accuſtomed Solemnities. His Majeſty returned from the Cathedral to the Caſtle, with a very numerous and ſplendid Retinue. The Cardinal Primate, the Palatine of Hungary, the Arch-biſhop of Colocza, the Popes Nuncio, and the Ambaſſador of Venice, were entertained at Dinner at the Emperor's own Table, and the Deputies of the States of Hungary were Nobly provided for at other Tables. Wine ran plentifully from two Fountains among the Common People, and the Evening concluded with Bonfires, Illuminations, and other Teſtimonials of Joy throughout the whole City. The next Day the Empreſs-Mother together with the Arch-Dutcheſs, Mary Elizabeth, went Incognito to Presburg, where they were receiv'd by the Emperor with great Joy and Surprize, at their unexpected Arrival: After they had complimented his Majeſty upon his Acceſſion to the Crown of Hungary, they Din'd with him in Publick, and returned to this Place about Eleven a Clock the ſame Evening. Yeſterday Morning the Empreſs Amelia, Dowager of the late Emperor Joſeph, made her firſt Appearance in Publick, with the two Arch-dutcheſſes her Daughters, and went to the Church of the Capuchins, to celebrate the Anniverſary Obſequies for the Deceaſed Emperor.

Berlin, May 28. N. S. The King and the whole Court went on Wedneſday laſt from Potſdam to Charlottemburg. Some Days before his Majeſty's departure, the Meſſieurs Ilgen and Printz, at the Requeſt of Monſieur Gromkau, who has been lately join'd to Monſieur Blaſpiel, in the Office of Commiſſary of War, repreſented to his Majeſty, that the Affairs of the Commiſſariate was in very great diſorder, upon which Monſieur Blaſpiel deſir'd his Majeſty to appoint a Commiſſion to examine his Conduct; and accordingly the King has named the Count Dhona, and the Meſſieurs Ilgen, Printz, Bartuoldi and Kamke, who are the Miniſters of State here at preſent. The King has given Orders to Augment the Fortifications of Printzlow, the Capital Town of the Ukermark, and ſeveral other Places upon the Frontiers. Prince Menzikoff is expected every Day at this Court from Goertz, which is in Swediſh Pomerania, where he arrived about a Fortnight ſince: It is deſigned that he ſhall receive the ſame Honours which Prince Eugene had when he was here; and that a Guard ſhall be appointed for him, conſiſting of Five and twenty Men, commanded by a Lieutenant. We have Advice that the Prince Hereditary of Muſcovy is arriv'd at Gartz, as is likewiſe the Lady of Prince Menzikoff, and that the Muſcovite Troops are on their March for this Country, in their way to Pomerania. His Pruſſian Majeſty has ſent Monſieur de Slippenbach to Bareith, not only to make his Compliments of Condolance at that Court, upon the Death of the late Margrave of Bareith, but likewiſe to endeavour by his Mediation, to adjuſt ſome Differences that have happened between the preſent Margrave and Margravine Dowager. It is ſaid, that his Majeſty has diſpoſed of the Order of the Black Eagle, in favour of Prince Ferdinand of Courland, who was upon the Road to Berlin.

Hamburg, June 3. N. S. According to our Letters from Poland, the Excurſions which the Troops of the Palatine of Kiovia uſed to make into that Kingdom, are now ceaſed, ſince the Peace has been made betwen the Port and the Czar, and that the Tartars had expreſs Orders from the Grand Signior, to retire out of Poland. We have Advice from Petersburg of the Twenty-eighth of the laſt Month, that in all probability his Czariſh Majeſty would not arrive in Germany, ſo ſoon as he had at firſt deſigned, becauſe he had ſince taken a Reſolution to go in Perſon with his Tranſports into Finland, to make the Siege of Abo, which is the only Place that remains under the Suediſh Dominion in that Province. The Hereditary Prince of Muſcovy is arriv'd at Pomerania, and has taken up his Lodgings at the Quarters of Prince Menzikoff at Goertz. Theſe two Princes went to view the Situation of Stetin, with a Guard of Five hundred Dragoons, and came under the Cannon of the Town, but ſeveral Pieces being Fired from the Place, they retired after having burnt two of their Mills. The Governor of Stetin had form'd a deſign to deſtroy the Magazines belonging to the Saxons, and ſet out for that Purpoſe with Twenty ſmall Veſſels, each of which carried two Pieces of Cannon and thirty Men, but it was diſcovered to Prince Menzikoff by a Deſerter, and he was obliged to deſiſt from his Enterprize. The Miniſter of the Czar at Berlin, has made ſeveral preſſing Inſtances, concerning the Execution of the Articles of ſome Treaties formerly agreed on between his Maſter and that Court, and has had ſeveral Conferences with the Miniſters of his Pruſſian Majeſty thereupon, but they are not as yet come to any Reſolutions. Two Regiments of Daniſh Horſe have received Orders from General Scholten, to March with all ſpeed to Mecklenburg, to obſerve the Garriſon of Wiſmar, upon ſome Aprehenſions that they would make an Invaſion into Holſtein. The Count Charles d'Aleſeld is declared Governor of Holſtein, but will remain at Copenhagen, and aſſiſt at the Privy Council there, as he did formerly.
